

Exhibit

Become an exhibitor at KOCHWELTEN and secure your place at the heart of the action. Present your products where taste, quality, and innovation meet an interested audience.

Whether a spice manufactory, kitchen technology, gourmet product or start-up – every brand becomes visible, tangible, and part of a high-quality culinary environment on our exhibition floor.

The exhibitor area offers companies the opportunity to present themselves professionally in a premium setting. In a calm, structured atmosphere, the focus is on direct exchange and expert communication.

Selected products from the fields of culinary arts, equipment, and innovation are showcased – including spices, delicatessen, coffee and tea culture, kitchen appliances, utensils, and modern technologies for everyday kitchen life. The emphasis is on quality, functionality, and brand identity.

It is the best opportunity for an interested audience to gather information, try things out, and engage directly with manufacturers and brands.
